

COMMUNITY
RELATIONS COMMISSION

dupageartleague

For Immediate Release
March 2, 2022

Walking Art Exhibit: We Are Women Celebrates Women's History Month in Downtown Wheaton March 1-31, 2022

Wheaton, IL, March 2 – In celebration of Women's History Month, the Downtown Wheaton Association, City of Wheaton Community Relations Commission, and DuPage Art League launch the second annual We are Women, an art exhibit celebrating female artists and women-owned and -managed businesses.

This walking exhibit features 25 female artists' work, in a variety of mediums including pastels, oils, acrylics, fused glass, pottery, and more, displayed in some of Downtown Wheaton's women-owned or -managed businesses.

Maps of this walking exhibit are available for download at DowntownWheaton.com.

Local artists who are featured include Nancy Phillips Anderson, Cheri Armstrong, Margaret Bucholz, Sara Peak Convery, Danielle Crilly, Stephanie Dalton, Laurel Erickson, Cherylyn Gnad, Barb Grabowski, Hannah Hayes, Laura Hayes, Carol Kincaid, Carol Kohout, Valerie Lorimer, Victoria Martin, Diana Mitchell, Irene O'Neill, Cheryl Rausch, Brianna Saviano, Mary Stamatopoulos, Mary Kate Venturini, Marlene Vitek, Kay Wahlgren, Mary Lou Wecker, and Janice Zeuch.

Participating businesses include Adelle's Fine American Fare, Alphagraphics, Altiro Latin Fusion, Amante Marketplace, Andrew's Garden, Baby Doll Bakery, Collee Nannies + Sitters+ Tutors, County Farm Bagels, Doodlebug Workshop, Dry City Brew Works, DuPage Art League, Images Med Spa, Jeans and A Cute Top Shop, JF Counseling Services, PLLC, Kimmer's Ice Cream, M & Co. Salon, Marquiz Salons & Spa, MilaGrace

Boutique, MION Artisan Soap, MOORE Toys & Gadgets, My Half of the Sky, Noteable Notes Music Academy, Suzette's Creperie, The Perfect Thing, and Wyckwood House.

About Downtown Wheaton Association

The Downtown Wheaton Association promotes the downtown Wheaton community with a mission to build and maintain a healthy, vibrant Downtown Wheaton.

About the City of Wheaton Community Relations Commission

The City of Wheaton Community Relations Commission is a group, comprised of local volunteers, that aims to be the catalyst to connect all people and encourage a sense of belonging within the Wheaton community through events, educational programming, and opportunities to give back. Visit <https://www.wheaton.il.us/169/Community-Relations-Commission> for more info.

About DuPage Art League

The DuPage Art League is a not-for-profit art school and gallery. Our aim is to promote and encourage the visual arts through classes, workshops, gallery exhibits, free public fine arts programs, exhibits by our artists in numerous commercial and public buildings, and financial endowments to public institutions of arts education and scholarships to students. All donations and gifts to the League are greatly appreciated and are tax deductible. Learn more at <https://www.dupageartleague.org>.

Media Contact

Downtown Wheaton Association

Info@DowntownWheaton.com

(630) 682-0633

###